Christopher Bigsby's masterful two volume biography of Arthur Miller sheds new light on one of the twentieth century's most acclaimed literary figures. Plays such as Death of a Salesman, A View from the Bridge and The Crucible brought Miller an international following. Events such as his refusal to provide information to the House Un-American Activities Committee and his marriage to Marilyn Monroe kept him in the public eye. The second half of his About the Author. Christopher Bigsby is Professor of American Studies at the University of East Anglia and Director of the Arthur Miller Centre for American Studies. He has previously been awarded the McKitterick Prize for Best First Novel and the Barna
