By Philip Ridley : Karagula (Modern Plays) benefiting from the healing undergone by his immediate predecessor the tenth doctor possessed Karagula (Modern Plays):

A doorway to a new future is ready to open We are the hinge of that moment We will let the door swing wide On a beautiful spring evening ndash when both moons are full ndash two teenagers vow eternal love It is a moment that will have cataclysmic consequences Not just for them but for the world on which they live A world where Prom Night is a matter of life or death where weapons are grown and trained like pets and where a chosen few are hear We need writers such as Ridley to take us to these dark crevasses of experience it all remains with you like a vivid hallucination Arts Desk No one captures pain violence and the misery of love gone wrong quite like Philip Ridley
