(Australian Playwrights):

Nick Enright 1950 2003 was one of Australia's most significant and successful playwrights. As a writer, director, actor, and teacher, he influenced theatre in Australia for thirty years. Enright wrote more than fifty plays for the stage, film, television, and radio, translated and adapted more, and taught acting to students in varied settings both in Australia and the United States. His writing repertoire included comedy, social realism, farce, fantasy, and the musical. This book makes an excellent contribution to theatre scholarship at a time when the profile of the Australian playwright seems to be slipping into curious abeyance at the hands of the devising team in Theatre Research International 34 2
